

CHARLES ARNUP'S CASE.

Examination On the Charge of Voluntary Manslaughter.

The Hearing Will Be Concluded in the Police Court Tomorrow—Serious Charge Against a Colored Girl.

Yesterday was a very busy day in the police court. The court was in session all day up to 5 p. m. The case which attracted most attention was that of the People vs. Charles Arnup, the charge being that of involuntary manslaughter, in that he hit a Chinaman, Wong Kem, with a stone, causing the death of Kem under circumstances already reported. The case was called at 2 o'clock. The court room was crowded, a great many Chinese were among the audience watching the case in the interest of their deceased compatriot. They had also employed Attorney E. W. Taylor to assist Prosecuting Attorney Elmore. Mr. W. C. Reilly appeared for the defendant. Jim Ling, William Simpson, Eliza Standish, George A. Shesie and Henry Smith, witnesses for the prosecution, were examined. There were no new facts elicited. The evidence went to show that Kem was peacefully following his vocation of a peddler when Arnup commenced pelting him with stones. In cross-examination it was elicited that after receiving a few volleys of the missiles the Chinaman pulled out a knife and went after his assailant until he was hit behind the ear by a stone and fell insensible. He was taken to Dr. Smith and Shesie, who dressed the wound. It, however, developed that the jugular vein was cut and in a few days the Chinaman died. Dr. Benedict and Smith were called to give expert testimony, but before their examination commenced the court rose. The case will be resumed at 10:30 o'clock on Monday morning.

WITH INTENT TO MURDER.

Emma Johnson, a colored girl, was held for assault with intent to commit murder. C. W. Randolph, also colored, was the prosecuting witness. The facts as elicited were that she had loaned her watch to a man named Robinson who, instead of returning it to the Johnson girl, gave it to Randolph. The girl went to Randolph and demanded the watch. He refused to give it up and she struck him a blow in the face. She then pulled out a pistol and took a shot at him without having hit him. His honor held her in $500 bonds to await the action of the grand jury.

MINOR OFFENDERS.

The case against Jack Scott for petit larceny was continued until July 18. A McKenzie, a plain drunk, was assessed $5. Charles Johnson got into a row in a Franklin avenue maison de joie was charged with assault and battery and fined $10. Harry Smith and Frank Smith were dismissed on the charge of trespass. Minnie Gusterson forfeited $5.50 for prostitution.

Helen Blazek for keeping a house of ill fame forfeited $17 and six inmates of the same were assessed $8.50 each. Henry Lewis the busy negro who had the row with Lawyer Harris and several others in the Wm. building on Friday was arraigned on the charge of assault and battery. Bonds were set for $1000 on July 18. Bonds fixed at $200 or a cash deposit of $100.

John Hineman, charged with stealing a ride on the Rio Grande railway was dismissed. Mamie Baras, a Franklin avenue belle, was arraigned on the complaint of another symphonic dupe, on the charge of assault and battery, pleaded guilty and was fined $20.

W. Jones, a plain drunk, forfeited $5. Pete Johnson, charged with assault and battery, was dismissed. Maxie Smith, a "problem," was charged with advertising her vocation. The case was continued until tomorrow. Bond fixed at $25.

George M. Smith appeared to answer the charge of disturbing the peace and interfering with an officer. Early on Saturday morning he with others, made night hideous by yelling and singing on the streets and refused to desist when warned by an officer. His trial was set for July 19, at 2 p. m.

Released from the Penitentiary. Charles O. Connell was released from the penitentiary yesterday, upon the expiration of his sentence. He was sent up from Provo on Sept. 1, 1892, one year, for burglary.

New York Stock Market.
New York, July 15.—On the stock market today higher prices were recorded at the opening of business, Louisville & Nashville, General Electric, American Sugar, Manhattan and Grangers being prominent. The rise was stimulated by reports that a new bull combination had been formed with a certain operator heretofore conspicuous in industrial deals as manager. People in position to know thought rumors grew out of the fact that the operator, who has been in a quietest mood of late, purchased a line of stocks on the break early in the week for a turn. The Kansas City bank trouble and the attachment of the Schlesinger mine property caused a change in sentiment and the tendency was not only lost, but a net decline of 1/4 to 1/2 per cent. recorded for the day. The bank statement checked the decline for a time, but at the close the tendency was downward. Electric fell from 63 1/2, closing at 62 1/2. Northwestern was notably weak on the Schlesinger embargo; common, after a fractional advance to 10 1/4, fell to 9 3/4 and left off at 10. The market closed weak. Government bonds—Steady. Petroleum—Neglected.

A GREAT LITERARY BARGAIN!

Cooper's Famous Romances of the American Forest!

An Entirely New Edition of

THE LEATHERSTOCKING TALES,

By JAMES FENIMORE COOPER.

The first and greatest of American novelists was James Fenimore Cooper. "His popularity," says a writer in the Century magazine, "was cosmopolitan." He was almost as widely read in France, Germany, and in Italy as in Great Britain and the United States. Only one American book has ever since attained the international success of those of Cooper. "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and only one American author, Poe, has since gained a name at all commensurate with Cooper's abroad. The great author is dead, but his charming romances still live to delight new generations of readers. "The wind of the lakes and the prairie has not lost its balsam and the salt of the sea keeps its savor," says the same writer above quoted. Beautiful indeed are Cooper's stories of the red man and the pioneer, full of incident, intensely interesting, abounding in adventure, yet pure, elevating, manly, and entirely devoid of all the objectionable features of the modern Indian story. No reading could be more wholesome for young or old than Cooper's famous novels. An entirely new edition of the Leatherstocking tales has just been published, in one large and handsome volume of over three hundred large quarto pages, containing all of these famous romances, complete, unchanged and unabridged, viz:

THE DEERSLAYER, THE PATHFINDER, THE LAST OF THE MOHICANS, THE PIONEERS, THE FRONTIER.

This handsome edition of the Leatherstocking Tales is printed upon good paper from large type. It is a beautiful book, and one which should have a place in every American home. It contains five of the most charming romances that the mind of man has ever conceived. A whole winter's reading is comprised in this mammoth volume. All who have not read Cooper's stories, every member of the family circle will be delighted with them. We have made an arrangement with the publisher of this excellent edition of the Leatherstocking Tales whereby we are enabled to offer this large and beautiful book almost as a free gift to our subscribers. Such an offer as we make would not have been possible a few years ago, but the lightning printing press, low price of paper and great competition in the book trade have done wonders for the reading public, and this is the most marvelous of them.

We have in store for themselves a rich literary treat. Every member of the family circle will be delighted with them.
